Your responsibilities as a parent

By law, all children of compulsory school age (5 to 16) must receive suitable full-time education. As a parent, YOU have a legal responsibility for making sure they attend school on a regular basis.

If they do not attend, the school will make a referral to the Local Authority for consideration in relation to prosecuting you for an offence under the Education Act 1996. This may result in the Local Authority taking legal action against you in the Magistrates Court.

Prosecution for failing to ensure regular attendance at school can be taken where a child is a registered pupil at a school. Prosecutions are in accordance with Section 444 Education Act 1996.

Support on school attendance

If you are having trouble getting your child to come to school, the school and the Local Authority are here to help.
